

Native Tree Walk

In 2008, Fern Hollow Nature Center received a generous grant from the Mackenzie Foundation and Child Health Association allowing Fern Hollow to offer 32 different species of native trees that will help to attract local wildlife throughout the year and serve as an educational tool to highlight the importance of native biodiversity.

Fern Hollow Nature Center is an Accredited Level 1 Arboretum.

1. Sweetgum Tree
2. Sweetbay Magnolia Tree
3. Serviceberry Tree
4. American Elm 'Liberty' Tree
5. American Beech Tree
6. Persimmon Trees (male and female)
7. American Elm 'Valley Forge' Tree
8. Ohio Buckeye Tree
9. Swamp White Oak Tree
10. American Hornbeam AKA Musclewood Tree
11. Yellow Buckeye Tree
12. Cucumber Magnolia Tree
13. Kentucky Coffeetree
14. American Smoketree
15. Blackgum Tree
16. Tulip Poplar Tree
17. Chinkapin Oak Tree
18. Pin Oak Tree
19. Hophornbeam Tree
20. Scarlet Oak Tree
21. Bur Oak
22. White Oak Tree
23. Shingle Oak Tree
24. Chestnut Oak Tree
25. American Chestnut Tree Orchard
26. Bigleaf Magnolia Tree
27. Eastern Hemlock Tree
28. Dogwood 'Appalachian Spring' Tree
29. Eastern Redbud tree

